

The map displays a complex urban and topographical layout. A prominent red boundary line encloses a large area, while a blue dashed line highlights a specific section. Several blue icons, resembling house symbols, are placed throughout the map, likely indicating specific locations or points of interest. The map is labeled with various place names, including Caprona, Bicchierino, and Zambra. It also shows topographical features such as the Caprona river and the Caprona hill. The map is divided into various colored zones, including green, yellow, and orange, which may represent different land use categories or administrative boundaries. The map is also marked with numerous numerical values, possibly representing elevation or coordinates.